

KAROLYI IS OUSTED FROM ITALY AS RED

Charged With Distribution of Funds to Communists;
Florence Quiet.

ROME, March 5.—Count Michael Karolyi, formerly President of the National Council of Hungary, has been ordered expelled from Italy. He was accused of distributing funds to Communists and being in touch with foreigners who recently incited disorders in Tuscany.

Count Karolyi occupied a beautiful villa with his family at Fiesole. Police surrounded the villa and escorted the entire family to police headquarters, from which they will be sent to the frontier.

FLORENCE, Italy, March 4 (delayed).—This city, recently the scene of serious disorders, which resulted in several deaths, was quiet to-day under military occupation. Local outbreaks by Communists in the country districts still are occurring, but it is believed the worst of the disorders are over.

The violence of the fighting in the recent disorders throughout Tuscany is indicated by details of the disturbances which have only come to light. At Scansano, Communists barricaded the main street and attacked the carabinieri. Royal Guards, with machine guns and cannon, were required to dislodge them. After the battle, communist headquarters was raided and pictures of Lenin and Trotsky were found painted on the backs of portraits of King Humbert and Queen Margherita, obviously with the idea of reversing the paintings at an opportune time.

LABOR WINS BY-ELECTION.

KIRKCALDY, Scotland, March 5.—The Government suffered a defeat in the bye-election made necessary by the resignation of Sir James Henry Dalziel, member of the House of Commons for Kirkcaldy Burghs. The result of the voting, as announced to-day, was: Tom Kennedy, Laborite, 11,674; Sir Robert Lockhart, Coalition 10,189.
